

Question: Are DAI and HT correlated across different crown class codes?

Crown class codes are the semi-qualitative crown conditions for different trees that provides information about the light availability and competition experienced by trees in these plots.

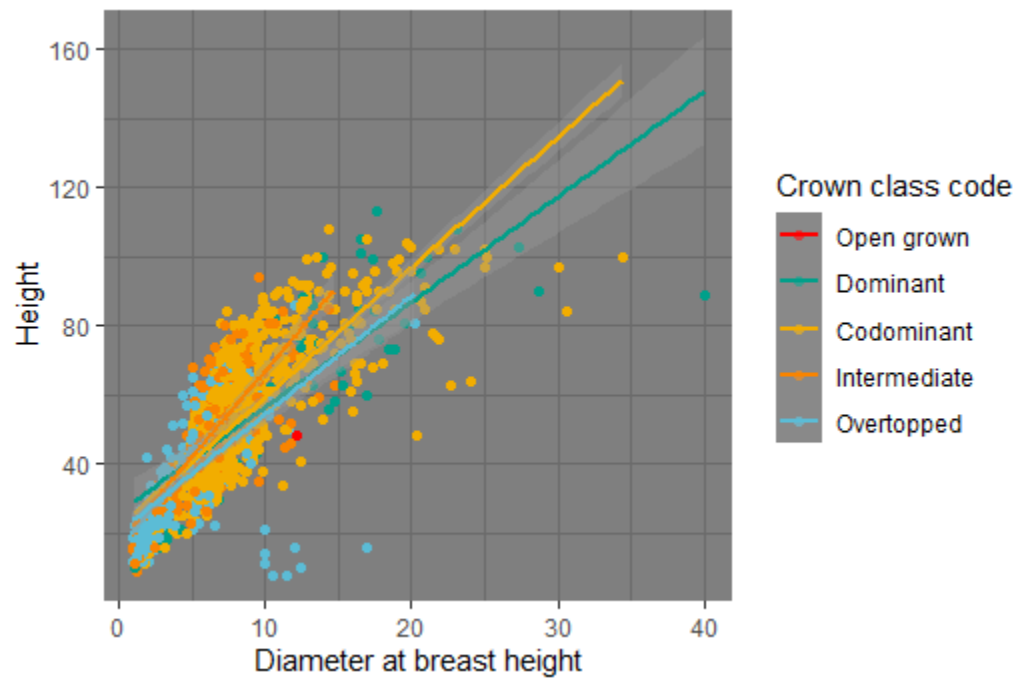

Fig 1. Bad visualization

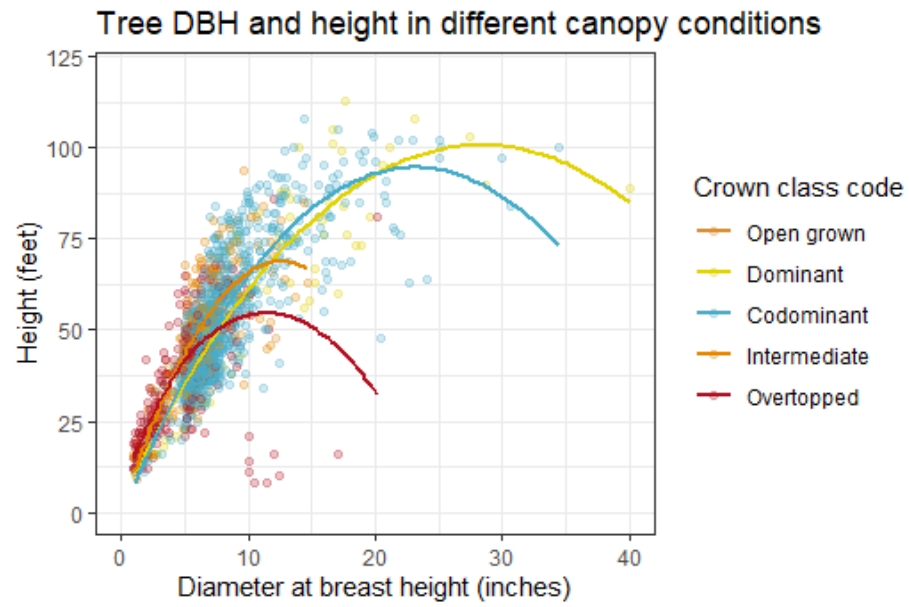

Fig 2. Good visualization